HON. MIKE COFFMAN

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, April 24, 2013

Mr. COFFMAN. Mr. Speaker, on January 3, 2009, the day I took office, the national debt was $10,627,961,295,930.67.

Today, it is $16,794,429,148,215.24. We've added $6,166,467,852,284.57 to our debt in 4 years. This is $6.1 trillion in debt our nation, our economy, and our children could have avoided with a Balanced Budget Amendment. We must stop this unconscionable accumulation of debt.

RECOGNIZING THE NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER

HON. RICHARD B. NUGENT

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, April 24, 2013

Mr. NUGENT. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the National Day of Prayer.

On May 2nd, 2013, hundreds of people across Florida's eleventh district will come together to observe the 62nd annual National Day of Prayer.

The call to prayer is a tradition as old as America itself. Our founding fathers were so firm in their belief in God that they frequently turned to prayer for blessing and in times of need. Thomas Jefferson believed that the God who gives us life also gives us liberty and that as Americans we must acknowledge his mercy and guidance.

In 1952, Congress passed a resolution establishing an annual day of prayer. This resolution was later amended and signed by President Reagan to permanently establish the first Thursday of May as the National Day of Prayer.

This day holds special meaning as it serves as an important reminder of the role faith has played, and continues to play, in our everyday lives.

Therefore, I, RICHARD B. NUGENT, Member of Congress representing the eleventh district of Florida, do hereby recognize the district's observance of the 62nd National Day of Prayer.

A TRIBUTE TO MR. CLYDE RANDAL STRICKLAND

HON. MIKE MCINTYRE

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, April 24, 2013

Mr. MCINTYRE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to the longtime pastor of the Stedman Pentecostal Holiness Church Mr. Clyde Randal Strickland, known as Randal by his friends and his congregation. Mr. Strickland passed away on March 30, and he will be remembered as a caring pastor who led by example, describing himself as a shepherd, not a policeman. He will be dearly missed.

Randal Strickland was born in January, 1951, as one of six children to Randolph and Laverne Strickland. Mr. Strickland was given his grandfather's name, Clyde, but everybody in his congregation and the tight-knit Stedman community knew him as Randal. Mr. Strickland first met his wife, June Hancock, when she was in fourth grade and he in fifth. They dated throughout high school and attended Coker College in South Carolina together. Mr. Strickland discovered his calling as a pastor when he was asked to temporarily fill the position at Stephenson Avenue Pentecostal Holiness in Savannah, Georgia. He then moved to Stedman, North Carolina and served the Stedman Church for 30 years.

Mr. Strickland baptized hundreds of people and officiated over 100 weddings, including that of one of his own daughters. Over his lifetime he earned the love and admiration of his congregation, the people of Stedman, and all who met him.

Mr. Strickland is survived by his wife, June H. Strickland; children, Joanna Gray and husband Jim, Lynn Jeffrey and husband Travis, and Phillip Strickland and wife Ashley; grandchildren, Judah, Julianna, Jacob and Jennalyn Gray, and Cooper and Caden Jeffrey, all of Stedman; mother, Laverne Strickland; brothers, Allen Strickland, Doug Strickland and Wayne Strickland; and sisters, Darlene Fisher and Anita Williams.
